THE WINKLER BIBLE SCHOOL

Ich lasse dich
nicht du segnest
mich denn.

1. Mose 32:27.

Vorwort

In den Monaten vor dem Anfang dieses Schuljahres ist oft und ernstlich darum gebetet worden, dass Gott doch diejenigen jungen Leute herfuehren moechte, die Er hier haben wollte. Der Herr erhoerte das Gebet und gab uns Jugend, die da tiefer in Gottes Wort eindringen wollte.

Als erst die Tueren der Schule geoeffnet waren, so empfand die Pnielfamilie so wie Jacob, der da sagte: "Ich lasse dich nicht, du segnest mich denn." (1. Mose 32:27). Gottes Segen wurde uns reichlich zuteil. Das durften wir erfahren in den vielen Unterrichtsstunden, in den Morgenandachten, in den Zeugnis- und Gebetstunden, in dem Verteilen der vielen Gaben unter den Armen in Winkler und Umgebung, in dem Liefern von Programmen in den Gemeinden und Schuldistrikten, in dem Sonntagschulunterricht, der auf verschiedenen Stellen abgehalten wurde, an den Donnerstag Abenden, wo Studenten und Lehrer in mannigfacher Weise gearbeitet haben, in dem Dienst im Hospital und in den Altenheimen und in den vielen sonstigen ungenannten und oft ungesehenen Diensten innerhalb und ausserhalb der Schule. Auch in den Dormitories und in den Privatheimen, wo unsre Studenten Unterkunft gefunden hatten, ist goettlicher Segen geflossen. Das Schwere ist freilich nicht ausgeblieben. Doch wollen wir nun Gott ruehmen und Ihm die Ehre geben fuer Seine gnaedige Durchhilfe und fuer jeden empfangenen Segen.

Zurueckschauend rufen wir mit Samuel aus: "Bis hieher hat uns der Herr geholfen." Im Blick auf die Zukunft sagen wir mit dem Liederdichter: "Herr, entlass uns mit dem Segen, den Du uns verheissen hast; fuehr uns Deine Liebeswege, ausser Dir ist keine Rast."

Footprints Of Jesus

Sweetly, Lord, have we heard Thee calling,
Come, follow Me!
And we see where Thy foot-prints falling
Lead us to Thee.

If they lead thro' the temple holy,
Preaching the Word;
Or in homes of the poor and lowly,
Serving the Lord:

Foot-prints of Jesus,
That make the pathway glow;
We will follow the steps of Jesus
Where'er they go.

Ein Wort vom Direktorium

Das Schuljahr 1956-57 der Winkler Bibelschule ist auch wieder zum Abschluss gekommen.

Es war ein wunderbares Jahr! Reich an Segen verschiedener Art; aber auch von manchen Sorgen gefuellt; ein Jahr, wo Gott uns beides, Lehrer, wie auch Schueler gab, beides nach seinem Wohlgefallen.

Ein jeder Schultag gab Zeugnis davon, wie man vorwaerts strebte. Diese kurtze Zeit von etwa 6 Monaten, auszunutzen. Ja, etwas hineinzupflanzen in die Studierenden, das den Stuermen und Proben des Lebens faehig waere die Stirne zu bieten und etwas zu formen, das da tuechtig waere, der Menschheit ein Segen zu sein.

Und mit innerer Genugtuung duerfen wir als Komitee feststellen, dass Gott Gnade geschenkt hat, und hat zum Wollen, auch das Vollbringen geschenkt. Phil. 2:13.

Obzwar auch wir es mit verschiedenen Beduerfnissen und Fragen, die sich immer wieder in einer Bibelschule zeigen, zu tun haben; so wissen wir doch, dass Gott alle unsere Notdurft ausfuellen kann und zwar nach seinem Reichtum in der Herrlichkeit in Christo Jesu. Phil. 4:19.

Es war "ER", Jesus Christus, mit dem einmal der Grund zu diesem Werk gelegt wurde, es soll "ER" sein, mit dem wir weiter bauen wollen.

Der Herr helfe uns darin!

VALEDICTORY

A school is to be a place of learning and preparation for whatever may confront us in life. Just recently we entered this institution with great anticipation of what it would offer. Now the time is fast approaching when again we will have to say farewell to our faculty and fellow students. The times we spent here were times when we were showered with blessings, but they brought also with them times of real heart searching. Maybe for many of us this departing might be rather a sad note, but our pleasant memories and associates that we have had here cannot but again give us happiness. This being our last year together here in school will give us reason to make our farewell of a more permanent nature but we can always look back and remember the blessed time we had together.

We see in a small class like ours the many different interests in life, now, however, they have been centered along the same line of thought. The privilege has been ours to sit at the feet of Jesus where many new truths have been revealed to us. Thinking about the fact, that for the past few years we have studied God's word, there should no longer be much unfamiliar ground left; that, however, is not our conviction. Rather, we can now better understand the words Paul writes in Romans 11:33, "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments and his ways past finding out!" To the best of our ability we want to apply the little we have learned to whatever service we have to render.

Looking back to the few years of learning in school where the major part of the subjects are biblical, we have to admit that these studies will be very beneficial for whatever service God will expect of us. The studying is of great importance but we cannot help but think of the many hours of fellowship we have had with fellow-believers. It was in these hours that we were uplifted, receiving encouragement, and a greater desire for more effective and concentrative studying. The motto, "Serve the Lord with gladness," Ps. 100:2, served as a special encouragement and, also, as an exhortation that we want to take with us.

When we entered school we had one desire: to grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. We came to furnish ourselves with the word of God so that we will be able to stand and shine as lights in this dark world. Paul exhorts us, that if we want to be good soldiers of the Cross in such a time as we are living in now, we must "study to show ourselves approved unto God, workmen that need not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth," II Tim. 2:15. We have studied for a short interval of time, but we want to continue if not in another school, then by ourselves.

As we look into the future, everything might look rather dismal but we have one assurance that can overcome this feeling. We have a Saviour who knows us and also what is best for us; we need only to follow as He leads. Certainly we are weak of ourselves; so we need to depend upon God as Paul did. In II Cor. 12:9 we read, "May grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness." Comforting words, indeed, but it gives us all the more reason to continually strive forward and conquer as we have never done before. Rom. 8:37.

Live As You Pray

I knelt to pray when day was done,
And prayed: "O Lord, bless everyone;
Lift from each saddened heart the pain,
And let the sick be well again!"
And, then I wake another day
And carelessly went on my way.

The whole day long I did not try
To wipe a tear from any eye;
I did not try to share the load
Of any brother on my road;
I did not even go to see
The sick man just next door to me.

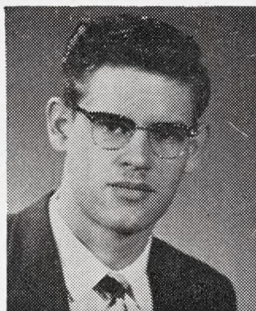

Yet once again, when the day was done
I prayed: "O Lord, bless everyone!"
But as I prayed, into my ear
There came a voice that whispered clear
"Pause, hypocrite, before you pray.
Whom have you tried to bless today?"

God's sweetest blessings always go
By hands that serve Him here below."
And then I hid my face and cried:
"Forgive me Lord, for I have lied;
Let me but see another day
And I will live the way I pray."

THIRD CLASS REPORT

As third class we are grateful to God for the opportunity afforded us of going to Bible School. Our class did not lack the three essentials of a good classroom: the student, the material to be studied, and the instructor.

The members of our class were no exception to the common rule of classrooms, in that there was diversity. Some of our number voiced their opinions during class discussions, while others gave the teacher reason to doubt their presence of mind. A number of the students took great delight in completing all their assignments on time, whereas with others this was less apparent. The many other differences did not succeed in destroying the unity so necessary in a class like ours. All the classmates sympathized with a student who might be in an unfortunate situation. Matters that concerned the class as a whole were discussed by the class. Together, the Lord blessed us in executing our duties as a class or in the study of His Word and related subjects. Together, we strive to meet the challenge of our class motto: Col. 1:10, "That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God."

The material to be studied got a mixed, yet favourable reception by the student. The Sunday School course gave us a more impressive insight into the work of the Sunday School. Our eyes have been opened to the work, the responsibility, and the privilege of a teacher. A good teacher-training has become indispensable in our eyes. The

SECOND CLASS REPORT

A brief glimpse into the second classroom reveals forty ambitious students who have left the different walks of life in order to gain a more extensive knowledge of the Word of God. Some have temporarily given up a profession, while others have entered school after high school completion. All, however, are there for the one purpose of becoming better equipped to serve their Master, each in his respective place.

During the brief months that have elapsed since our entrance at school, we as a class have become more united. Each week the entire class gathered for a time of prayer. Here we shared our joys as well as our burdens. Together we asked the Lord, and as a result we have seen our prayers answered. These weekly prayer meetings have proved a source of blessing for everyone.

Every morning in the devotional period we received the strength we needed for the day. Sometimes when we were discouraged, these moments of meditation enabled us to face the task that lay before us with renewed spirit.

Thereupon we entered our rooms. We are certainly thankful for the hours when we could delve deeper into the various books of the Bible. Here we gained a greater insight into the scriptures. For those of us, whom the Lord will give the duty of working with children, be it in Sunday School or otherwise, the subjects of Child Study, Methods and also Conducting have proven beneficial. It is our prayer that when we leave this classroom after the seemingly short six months we spent in it we may put into practice what we have learned. Yet we realize that we ourselves are unable to accomplish anything. It is God who must give the increase. Whenever we felt incapable, our minds were turned to our class motto, Philippians 4:13 "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

Our God Is With Us Still

It matters not what others say,
Or what they think or do,
If we are walking in God's way
And to His Word are true,
For He has given us a guide—
A rule by which to live,
And if in us His Words abide
His blessing He will give.

It matters not what we may lose
Here in this world below;
God always will provide for those
Who honor to Him show;
So we have but to carry on
And strive to do His will.
His Word we can depend upon;
Our God is with us still.

A DAY IN FIRST CLASS

The motto of First Class is found in Ps. 86:11. "Teach me thy way, O Lord." It is truly the prayer and desire of every student in our class to know God's will for his life.

During "Chapel" our hearts are quieted before God to receive the message He has for us, and we are challenged to live closer to God. Following "Chapel" we all enjoy a period of enthusiastic singing, giving praise and glory to our God and Maker!

Our next period is spent in learning German Grammar, and although some subjects seem more difficult than others, we're thankful that God gives strength for each. The period, "Fundamentals of Faith," has proven to be a valuable one. During this hour many truths have been expounded to us from the Word of God.

Following these classes we go to our residences to partake of the food prepared for us; then with renewed energy we return to school.

Our first class in the afternoon is "Antiquities." Here we get a picture of the tabernacle as recorded in the Old Testament, relating what each article in the tabernacle represents. In the study of "Old Testament Synthesis" we become more acquainted with the books and characters of the Old Testament. We realize how fortunate we are that we no longer live under the law but under grace. We close the day by looking into "The Life of Christ." During this class we have been spurred on in our Christian life and we realize that it is our duty each day to walk worthy of our high calling.

These six months at school have proven to be a blessing to all of us.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

In Psalm 86:11 we read, "Teach me they way, O Lord, I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name" The Psalmist felt a need and asked the Lord to teach him the way to walk in truth and to fear the name of God. This need to teach the little ones to walk in truth and unite their hearts to fear His name has been a challenge to Winkler Bible School. As Rev. Clarence E. Fast says, "For if you get the child for Christ, you not only save a soul but you save a life. Train him while he is pliable and he will the more easily follow truth and not only live for, but also serve Christ."

This school term seven students are active in two Sunday Schools in the villages. At Neuenburg we have an enrollment of eighteen with an average attendance of twelve. At Schanzenfeld the enrollment is seventeen with an average attendance of nine. These Sunday Schools are conducted Sunday mornings for approximately an hour. The opening is made with Scripture Reading and Prayer, followed by singing of choruses, and learning new songs. A story is told to the whole group after which the children go to their respective classes for the Sunday School lesson. We are dismissed with prayer.

On the whole the children are very attentive and eager to hear the Word of God and participate in the singing.

Thanks be unto God for this opportunity of telling the children of God's love. Let us win the child and save his life for Christ and he may win his parents and others for Christ.

HOSPITAL VISITATION

As has been the practise in previous years, various groups of singers from the Bible School are taking Matthew 25:26 seriously. In accordance with a pre-arranged schedule, a ladies trio or male quartette enters the hospital at 6:30 P.M., to serve both the patients and the hospital staff, with song, Scripture reading and prayer. The usual procedure is as follows: two or three songs by the group, scripture reading and prayer, by a member of the group or another member of the student body enlisted for this purpose, which is usually followed by more songs. By this time it is usually close to 7:00 and the group departs to return to their respective residence. Occasionally the singers converse with the patients or sing at the bedside upon request. Sometimes the ladies groups stop to inspect Canada's newest citizens.

The purpose of these visitations is quite apparent. Cheer and encouragement have been brought, not only to the patients but to the members of the staff as well. It is our heartfelt prayer and desire that, should some soul be on the brink of eternity without the assurance of God's grace and forgiveness, it might grasp in faith the gospel message of Christ's redeeming work on Calvary's tree and pass from death unto everlasting life.

Some might wonder, why all this extra effort is put forth when there is much work to do outside of this? The answer is very simple. This is a means of serving God and our fellowman, and is a great source of blessing for us to know that we are cheering some troubled soul and helping to make long hours pass more quickly. In Hebrews 13:16 we read: "But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased."

CHRISTMAS CHEER

Zechariah 11:7 "I will feed even you, O poor of the flock."

In the past Christmas season, the Lord gave us as Bible School much grace to do this in a twofold manner.

Upon entering every home a few carols were sung. These were followed by scripture reading, meditation thereupon, and a story for the children in Christian homes. In the non-Christian homes we put to practice what we had been studying in Personal Work. The moments of prayer held in every home were of great encouragement to us, when some of the Christians being visited, participated with deep gratitude for the gifts.

In supplying some of the physical needs for the homes we were privileged to give food and clothing. Toys and a few sweets were eagerly accepted by the children.

A total of forty persons including two teachers participated in the distribution of the goods. The time required for this task was three afternoons. Seventeen districts: Hochfeld, Haskett, Wakeham, Schanzenfeld, Friedensruh, Kronsart, Osterwick, Blumenfeld, Winkler, Chor-titz, Reinfeld, Reinland, Bergfeld Rosengart, Horndean, Altona and Glen-cross were reached. Seventy-one homes and approximately three hundred and fifty children were reached during these visitations.

Our prayer toward the sown seed is "That it may die, and yield much fruit as found in John 12:34.

CHURCH VISITATIONS

We as students of this term, say with the psalmist, "Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day." Ps. 71:8.

Among the many other announcements made in our chapel this year, one was particularly predominant, namely, "We have been invited to bring a program at . . . church this coming Sunday. Please watch the bulletin board for the list of students going and the assigned duties."

Were they really duties? With a little more thought I believe each one of us agree that they were not, but rather, they were opportunities to serve our blessed Lord and Saviour. With this attitude of heart we diligently began to prepare. This consisted not only of practice and rehearsal, but even more largely—of earnest prayer. Thus, already before the visit was begun, we were richly blessed of the Lord. We greatly felt our weaknesses, however, we said with the psalmist in Ps. 71:16, "I will go in the strength of the Lord God."

The churches visited before Christmas were: Steinbach, Arnaud, Niverville, Lena, Boissevain, Alexander and Justice. After Christmas programs were rendered in the churches of Manitou, Burwalde, Noth Kildonan, Elmwood, Southend, Grossweide, Kronsart, Domain, Springstein, Elm Creek, Newton Siding, Horndean and Morden.

Through these visits we as students have learned to rely more completely on the Lord and the bonds of Christian love and fellowship have been strengthened through prayerfully supporting one another.

Sometimes the thought would flash through our minds, "We must be imposing upon the people, surely they must be getting tired of our visits." However, the thought was quickly erased by the warm, hearty reception which we received at each of the places visited. We do thank you for it and pray that the Lord will bless and reward you for it.

Thus, it has proven true that, "If we are willing to serve, God will provide the service." We thank Him for the opportunities given. We praise Him for the strength, help, and protection experienced time and again, and our sincere prayer is that our service, although small, might have been an honour to His name, and that it might bear fruit for time and eternity.

REPORT FROM THE LIBRARIANS

As librarians we are grateful to the student body for the co-operation they have shown. We thank Mr. Duerksen for his friendly and able assistance. Much valuable experience has been gained during these winter months. The library was completely re-checked and rearranged according to the various subjects. This work was done by a committee of five: Anne Enns, Pearl Wiebe, Margaret Wiebe, Clara Hyde and Leona Ginter. The books were re-numbered and the Two-Card System was introduced.

The work took the greater part of the year. We tried to spend one hour, four days a week, at this work. The library consists of approximately 1350 books, valued at three thousand dollars. This value is surpassed, however, by the benefits derived from the books by the students. The commentaries and other reference books are rich in explanation and application concerning many and varied subjects. The library has proved a source of help and blessing many a time in the past and we are confident that it will continue to do so in the future.

DORMITORY DAYS

Let us pay a short visit to the girls' dormitory, where we find a happy family of fourteen. Various and interesting are the occurrences which take place in this old, but much-loved building.

Surely none of us could forget that first day. The getting acquainted with each other and with the ways of dormitory life would, no doubt, have been amusing for an outsider to watch. But in a few weeks we were well on our way to enjoying one another's company around the table, as well as in our rooms

Weekly prayer meetings were held, in which each of us participated. Our motto is found in Colossians 1:18 "That in all things He might have the preeminence." It has become the earnest desire of each girl here that Christ may be the reason for each thing we do. We have received many blessings while reading God's inspiring word, praying, and listening to the petitions and praises of fellow-Christians.

Regular devotional and quiet periods were great assets to our studying. Because of these we were able to do our homework in all "peace and quiet" as the saying goes. A little snack was next, followed by a few minutes of leisure time, and then back to our rooms for devotions and bed. Lights were out at eleven, except when someone had more questions to do or was in too good a mood to keep her laughs to herself. But this was soon remedied by a tap on the door.

Meals were no problem at this dormitory—that is not for thirteen of us! It was really good to come home at noon and surround a table covered with heaping dishes of colourful, tasty and nourishing foods. We owe a great many "thank-yous" to Katie.

All of us have shared our blessings as well as the unpleasant happenings. It was wonderful to have such understanding roommates and friends in whom we could confide, and with whom we could pray. Many battles were won, where Christ was the Victor, and Satan the defeated.

This has been a busy winter, in which each of us has been helped and encouraged in our studies, as well as in our Christian lives. Memories of the "dorm' days" will remain with us for many years to come.

DAS LEBEN IM DORMITORY

Im vergangenen Herbst traten dreißig Studenten in dieses Heim ein. Vier davon studieren in der oertlichen Hochschule. Diejenigen, die zum erstenmal hier eintraten, fragten sich: "Werden wir uns hier zuhause fühlen?"

Um 7 Uhr morgens laetet die Glocke als Zeichen, dass die Nacht vorbei ist. Ein neuer Tag voller Gelegenheiten, tiefer ins Wort Gottes hineinzudringen, und Taeter desselben zu werden, wartet unser. In den Studierstunden herrscht Ruhe in unseren Zimmern, wofuer wir den "Deans" dankbar sind. Wenn wir unsere Schularbeit getan haben, geniessen wir unsere Freizeit. Dass manchmal unsere Lebenslust dabei uebersprudelt, darf man uns nicht verdenken. Die Kunsteisbahn ist der geeignete Platz, auf welchem wir die gesammelte Energie gut anwenden koennen. Die mehr sanften Naturen spielen Tennis, Dammbrett, und andere Spiele, die hier sind, um uns vor Langeweile zu schuetzen.

In der Zeit von 7 bis 10:10, von einer Pause unterbrochen, versuchen wir durch Studium die Zeit auszukaufen. Abendsegen haben wir von 10:30 bis 11 Uhr in den einzelnen Zimmern. Auf den Knien haben wir Jakobus 5:16 erfahren. "Das Gebet des Gerechten vermag viel, wenn es ernstlich ist." Mittag abends schliessen wir gemeinsam den Tag mit Gebet, und zeugen von den Wohltaten, die Gott an uns tut.

Wenn wir auf den vergangenen Winter zurueckblicken, muessen wir sagen, dass das Leben im Dormitory fuer uns lehrreich war. Das Waschen des Geschirrs, und das Reinigen der Fussboeden ist fuer uns eine praktische Arbeit. Nicht immer bereitet uns dieses Freude, doch lernen wir dadurch die Pflichten unserer Muetter hoeher schaeetzen. Wir achten den Dienst unserer beiden Koechinnen. Mit Heiss-hunger verschlingen wir jede Mahlzeit und beweisen dadurch, dass dieselben immer gelungen sind.

Der positive Einfluss unserer drei Lehrer, die auch hier im Heim wohnen, wird mit uns ins Leben gehen. Sie lehren uns nicht nur das Wort in den Klassen, sondern helfen uns die Theorie in die Praxis umzusetzen. Wir gehen in die Welt hinein, aber wir sind noch im Werden, deshalb danken wir Gott, sowie jedem Einzelnen, der dazu beigetragen hat unser Verweilen in diesem Heim angenehm zu machen.

Bible classes were both interesting and edifying. The sometimes-difficult passages of the "Pauline Epistles" have taken new life for us. In Daniel we learn, among other things, that we can trust God for He is omnipotent, and in "Prophets" we have seen God as loving, yet righteous. In studying "Personal Work" the importance of spreading the Word has become real to us. The lives and work of great missionaries have planted in us a desire to be more zealous in the Lord's vineyard. In "Cults" and "Doctrine" we have come to appreciate tenets of our conference. A study in the history of our songs helps us to sing our songs with greater understanding and appreciation.

Our teachers have definitely done their part in making the school, and the classes in particular, a blessing. We are deeply grateful to them for their efforts and also, for their patience toward us. We look up to them for their great understanding and also, for their teaching ability. We see them substantiate what they teach in class by their walk out of class.

In reviewing these past months, our hearts are filled with gratitude. We are thankful for the fellow-students with whom we could fellowship in various ways. We are thankful for our wonderful course of studies which we have enjoyed. To our teachers we offer our thanks for their efforts to us-ward. Our prayer is that we may be found as those who have not experienced the grace and nearness of the Lord in vain.
